EXPLANATION.— The First Addition to Farmington Cemetery, is situated on the South and West sides of the Original Plat of said Cemetery. The North West corner of said Addition being a point Eight Hundred & seventy-three and one half feet (873½) East of the North West Corner of Section Eight, in Township One Hundred & Eight North of Range Sixteen west, and thence South Thirty three feet (33 ft) to the South boundary of the Highway to the point of beginning.—

All Lots are Ten (10) feet wide East and West by Twenty four (24) feet Long North & South, the same as in the original Plat.

The Alleys are a Continuation in the same lines, and of the same widths respectively as the Alleys in the original Plat — The North and South Alleys are each six (6) feet wide, except the alleys on the East, and West Sides of the grounds, which are each Nine (9) feet wide.—

All East & West Alleys are each Four (4) feet wide, except the alleys on the North & South Sides thereof which are each Nine (9) feet wide The said alley of the same width (9 ft) extending around the outer side of the Entire Cemetery as shown on the annexed Plat.

The Lots are numbered Consecutively, beginning with No 81 being a Continuation of the numbering in the original plat to obviate a possible Confusion of Numbers in the two Plats.—

And I further Certify this to be a correct Plat of the above described Addition, as Surveyed by me and Staked into Lots and alleys, under the direction of the Board of Trustees of the Farmington Cemetery Association

ORIGINAL PLAT

The Farmington Cemetery association learning that said cemetery required more of the land owned by it for lots, for their present use, had the first addition thereto surveyed and staked out into lots and alleys, as the same appears upon the tracings thereof. That hereto attached is a true and correct plat thereof, the lots being 10 feet by 24 feet, and the said lots, alleys and grounds are of the size, shape and measurement and position as stated and indicated in the plat and accompanying certificate of Thomas Hunter, both hereto attached; said certificate being made a part of this instrument the same as though incorporated in it as far as practicable; that said first addition is part of the grounds of the said association, and lies next west and south of the original plat.

That said Cemetery Association have and do now dedicate the said premises so surveyed, staked out and plated to the uses and purposes of a cemetery and as an addition to the original plat.
